MISSOULA
THEATRE

Missoula Children's Theatre, one of the country's leaders in youth theatre education, will be at SKyPAC for two separate week-long sessions. Set up in a camp-like structure, participants will audition, rehearse, and perform in a full-length production. Every camper will be cast in a role or be an assistant director for the performance. When campers are not in rehearsal they will participate in theatre games and activities concentrating on developing core theatrical skills such as: acting, singing, dancing, teamwork, and building self-confidence.

SYNOPSIS • SLEEPING BEAUTY • JUNE 22 – 27, 2015 An original adaptation of the classic fairy tale. A new princess is born, and from far and wide the people of the kingdom gather to celebrate. One simple mistake is made - an invitation is misplaced - and the wrath of the vicious Scarella falls upon the poor infant in the form of a spell. Sleeping Beauty is now destined to sleep for eternity if she should prick her finger on a spindle before she reaches her sixteenth birthday. Sleeping Beauty's Fairy Godmothers do their best to amend the spell, but Scarella, with the help of some nasty Trolls, tricks Sleeping Beauty into pricking her finger and the spell takes effect. Five hundred years pass, and Sleeping Beauty wakes to find herself in a Rock 'n Roll dream! Also featured in this production are the King and the Queen, Spot, the Fairies, the Palace Attendants, and the Caterpillars. SLEEPING BEAUTY--a Rock 'n Roll Fable for the ages. This is definitely no sleeper!

SYNOPSIS • ALADDIN • JULY 13 – 18, 2015 For Aladdin it's not easy to find a magic lamp but it's even harder to get a date! It's a swirling sandstorm of famous Arabian Tales from Ali Baba to Scheherazade, and even Sinbad the Sailor, as Aladdin journeys to find a magic lamp in a Cave of (not-so-great) Wonders. Along his way Aladdin seeks answers and advice from wise Genies, a powerful Sultan, and his own Mother to find a way to meet the Princess. However, even with the lamp in hand, Aladdin will have to learn that it takes more than a wish to make a good impression. Full of memorable characters, from lost Penguins to talking Palm Trees, this is an adventure worthy of 1001 laughs.

PRICING DETAILS: The pre-registration fee is $175.00* per week if you register before May 1, 2015. If you register after May 1, 2015 the fee is $200.00. Fees include the full week of camp and 2 adult tickets to the performance. Space is limited to 60 campers per week so be sure to register now for this exciting opportunity! T-shirts will be available for $15 each per camper through MCT. A limited number of scholarships are available. For more information about scholarships please contact SKyPAC's Education Associate, Tiffany Deaton, at (270) 904-7009 or send an email to tdeaton@theskypac.com.*

AGE RANGES AND PREREQUISITES: SKyPAC's curriculum is developmentally appropriate with classes delineated by age. Advanced classes may require previous experience. Please check with SKyPAC before enrolling. Please observe those recommendations to ensure your student's success as well as that of the entire class. The SKyPAC staff pays special attention to make sure that students are in the appropriate level and will work individually to ensure the best success for every student no matter the age or skill level. Any concerns or questions about the correct camp for your camper should be directed to SKyPAC Education Director, Zac Bush, at zbush@theskypac.com or (270) 904-5016.

CAMP SIZE: We limit camp size to provide quality instruction. Session sizes typically range from camp to camp. Larger classes will work with multiple teaching artists.

INSTRUCTORS: Instructors are professional teaching artists and actors.

DROP-OFF/PICK-UP INFORMATION: Missoula Children's Theatre campers need to be dropped off and picked up at the SKyPAC main entrance located at 601 College Street. Campers must sign-in every morning and a parent or guardian must sign them out at the end of each day. If someone other than a parent or guardian is picking them up, campers must have a note with them informing the staff.

ATTENDANCE & LUNCH: All rehearsals and performances are MANDATORY. Campers unable to attend all rehearsals may not be able to participate in the final performance. Campers who will be staying all day need to bring their own sack lunch (no refrigerator or microwave available). It is also recommended that all campers bring a water bottle labeled with their full name and at least one nutritious snack.

CLOTHES, SHOES & ELECTRONIC DEVICES: Campers need to wear comfortable clothing. If a camper must wear a skirt there MUST be shorts or leggings worn underneath. Campers must also wear closed-toed shoes. Please, NO FLIP FLOPS. Please leave all electronic devices at home. Parents, if your camper is required to carry a cell phone, it MUST be on silent during all rehearsals, classes and performances.

CONFIRMATIONS: Enrollment will be confirmed by email. Additional camp information will be sent to your email address 2 weeks prior to the session for which you are enrolled or, if enrolled "week of" or "day of" you will be provided all information at that time.

CANCELLATIONS: SKyPAC will issue a refund for cancellations made at least two weeks prior to the first day of class less a mandatory $50.00 cancellation fee. Within two weeks of a class, there will be no refunds.

TAX INFORMATION: If you are using camp in place of your regular day-care provider and would like credit for your taxes, please contact SKyPAC CFO Becky Furbush for the tax ID number at bfurbush@theskypac.com

SUMMER ARTS MAGIC CAMP 2015

International Magician of the Year, Kevin Spencer, teaches campers how to perform incredible magic tricks with everyday objects. This week-long, half-day camp combines learning magic tricks with storytelling, music, theatre and creative movement. Through the art of magic, campers will explore their curiosity, develop their magical creativity, and discover new confidence. Campers will learn to perform tricks using ropes, cards, rubber bands, paper clips, and how to create a big illusion. Campers will also learn how to select music and write a script to go along with their tricks. When camp concludes at the end of the week, campers will perform a live show for family and friends that is sure to baffle and amaze them all!

MAGIC CAMP INSTRUCTOR: Kevin Spencer is an educator, researcher, writer, and artist. He believes in the power of the arts to make a difference in people's lives.

Spencer is widely considered the leading authority on the therapeutic use of magic tricks in physical and psychosocial rehabilitation. He is the founder of the HEALING OF MAGIC program, a systematic approach to integrating magic tricks into rehabilitation therapy. His continuing education organization has the Approved Provider Status of the American Occupational Therapy Association (AOTA).

Spencer is an Education Researcher who is engaged in the study of the benefits of arts integration in the learning process of children, including those considered at-risk and with learning challenges. His groundbreaking research has been published in two leading education journals: the Journal of the International Association of Special Education (July 2012) and the Journal of the International Society for Teacher Education (December 2012). He is the founder of the HOCUS FOCUS project and the author of an 11-week, magic trick based curriculum with activities that align to National and Common Core State Standards of Learning. Spencer has his Certification in Autism Studies and is in the process of receiving his certification as a Qualified Autism Services Practitioner.

Spencer performs with his wife, Cindy, and tours internationally with one of the largest and most respected illusion productions in the world. They have performed in 19 countries on 5 continents.
