

SUMMER ARTS MAGIC CAMP 2015

International Magician of the Year, Kevin Spencer, teaches campers how to perform incredible magic tricks with everyday objects. This week-long, half-day camp combines learning magic tricks with storytelling, music, theatre and creative movement. Through the art of magic, campers will explore their curiosity, develop their magical creativity, and discover new confidence. Campers will learn to perform tricks using ropes, cards, rubber bands, paper clips, and how to create a big illusion. Campers will also learn how to select music and write a script to go along with their tricks.
