MISSOULA
CHILDREN'S THEATRE

Missoula Children's Theatre, one of the country's leaders in youth theatre education, will be at SKyPAC for two separate week-long sessions. Set up in a camp-like structure, participants will audition, rehearse, and perform in a full-length production. Every camper will be cast in a role or be an assistant director for the performance. When campers are not in rehearsal they will participate in theatre games and activities concentrating on developing core theatrical skills such as: acting, singing, dancing, teamwork, and building self-confidence.

SYNOPSIS • RAPUNZEL • JUNE 20 – 25, 2016 Would it surprise you to know that the story of Rapunzel happened in France? Well it didn't really, but our story takes you on a frivolous frolic through the French countryside. The Ogres garden in the Mushroom patch while the Corn and Potato spies report back to Madame Gothel. Frenchy and his intense friends, the Wood Elves, do their best to help Rapunzel escape the grasp of Madame Gothel. The lost Prince, Rapunzel's parents, and her friends the Unicorns try to help. Just when you think it's safe to cross the bridge, a Troll and Three Billy Goats Gruff get in the way. It doesn't help that the Three Bears (or is it four) confuse Rapunzel with Goldilocks and chase her through the forest. Add to that the Gremlins trying to play tricks on everyone and you have chaos! Well, it's not that bad because the Pixies foil the Gremlins' plans most of the time. In short, Rapunzel and all the rest of the characters tell a silly tale of personal triumph and friendship.

SYNOPSIS • THE JUNGLE BOOK • JUNE 27 – JULY 2, 2016 Ever been abandoned in the jungle, adopted by wolves, taught by a bear, befriended by a panther and chased by a tiger? In the Missoula Children's Theatre musical adaptation of THE JUNGLE BOOK, Mowgli the man-cub has all these adventures and more. Join him as he escapes from the Monkey-People, outwits a tiger, enlists the help of a rock-python, explores what it means to be human and learns a lesson from the brave mongoose Rikki-Tikki-Tavi. Original music and rollicking humor give new life to the classic tale by Rudyard Kipling.

PRICING DETAILS: The pre-registration fee is $175.00* per week if you register before May 6, 2016. If you register after May 6, 2016 the fee is $200.00. Fees include the full week of camp and 2 adult tickets to the performance. Space is limited to 60 campers per week so be sure to register now for this exciting opportunity! T-shirts will be available through MCT.

A limited number of scholarships are available. For more information about scholarships please contact SKyPAC's Education Assistant, Tiffany Deaton, at (270) 904-7009 or send an email to tdeaton@theskypac.com.*

AGE RANGES AND PREREQUISITES: SKyPAC's curriculum is developmentally appropriate with classes delineated by age. Advanced classes may require previous experience. Please check with SKyPAC before enrolling. Please observe those recommendations to ensure your student's success as well as that of the entire class. The SKyPAC staff pays special attention to make sure that students are in the appropriate level and will work individually to ensure the best success for every student no matter the age or skill level.

CAMP SIZE: We limit camp size to provide quality instruction. Session sizes typically range from camp to camp. Larger classes will work with multiple teaching artists.

INSTRUCTORS: Instructors are professional teaching artists and actors.

DROP-OFF/PICK-UP INFORMATION: Missoula Children's Theatre campers need to be dropped off and picked up at the SKyPAC main entrance located at 601 College Street. Campers must sign-in every morning and a parent or guardian must sign them out at the end of each day. If someone other than a parent or guardian is picking them up, campers must have a note with them informing the staff.

ATTENDANCE & LUNCH: All rehearsals and performances are MANDATORY. Campers unable to attend all rehearsals may not be able to participate in the final performance. Campers who will be staying all day need to bring their own sack lunch (no refrigerator or microwave available). It is also recommended that all campers bring a water bottle labeled with their full name and at least one nutritious snack.

CLOTHES, SHOES & ELECTRONIC DEVICES: Campers need to wear comfortable clothing. If a camper must wear a skirt there MUST be shorts or leggings worn underneath. Campers must also wear closed-toed shoes. Please, NO FLIP FLOPS. Please leave all electronic devices at home. Parents, if your camper is required to carry a cell phone, it MUST be on silent during all rehearsals, classes and performances.

CONFIRMATIONS: Enrollment will be confirmed by email. Additional camp information will be sent to your email address 2 weeks prior to the session for which you are enrolled or, if enrolled "week of" or "day of" you will be provided all information at that time.

CANCELLATIONS: SKyPAC will issue a refund for cancellations made at least two weeks prior to the first day of class less a mandatory $50.00 cancellation fee. Within two weeks of a class, there will be no refunds.

TAX INFORMATION: If you are using camp in place of your regular day-care provider and would like credit for your taxes, please contact SKyPAC Human Resource Manager, Becky Furbush for the tax ID number at bfurbush@theskypac.com

SUMMER ARTS MAGIC CAMP 2016

International Magician of the Year, Kevin Spencer, teaches campers how to perform incredible magic tricks with everyday objects. This week-long, half-day camp combines learning magic tricks with storytelling, music, theatre and creative movement. Through the art of magic, campers will explore their curiosity, develop their magical creativity, and discover new confidence. Campers will learn to perform tricks using ropes, cards, rubber bands, paper clips, and how to create a big illusion. Campers will also learn how to select music and write a script to go along with their tricks. When camp concludes at the end of the week, campers will perform a live show for family and friends that is sure to baffle and amaze them all!

WHEN

MAGIC CAMP INSTRUCTOR: Kevin Spencer is an educator, researcher, writer, and artist. He believes in the power of the arts to make a difference in people's lives.

Spencer is widely considered the leading authority on the therapeutic use of magic tricks in physical and psychosocial rehabilitation. He is the founder of the HEALING OF MAGIC program, a systematic approach to integrating magic tricks into rehabilitation therapy. His continuing education organization has the Approved Provider Status of the American Occupational Therapy Association (AOTA).

Spencer is an Education Researcher who is engaged in the study of the benefits of arts integration in the learning process of children, including those considered at-risk and with learning challenges. His groundbreaking research has been published in two leading education journals: the Journal of the International Association of Special Education (July 2012) and the Journal of the International Society for Teacher Education (December 2012). He is the founder of the HOCUS FOCUS project and the author of an 11-week, magic trick based curriculum with activities that align to National and Common Core State Standards of Learning. Spencer has his Certification in Autism Studies and is in the process of receiving his certification as a Qualified Autism Services Practitioner.

Spencer performs with his wife, Cindy, and tours internationally with one of the largest and most respected illusion productions in the world. They have performed in 19 countries on 5 continents.
