SKYPAC Named a Top Venue of the Month Worldwide in Pollstar Magazine

BOWLING GREEN, KY – The Southern Kentucky Performing Arts Center is proud to be recognized on both a national and global scale, earning the number eight spot among the top venues in the world this month in the 1,501 to 2,500 capacity category, as reported by Pollstar Magazine. SKYPAC ranks among venues in Canada, The United Kingdom and other venues in the United States.

For over 40 years, Pollstar has been a trusted source for live entertainment news and data, serving promoters, booking agents, venue managers, and talent across the globe.

"To be recognized among the top ten ticket-selling venues in the world is a tremendous honor for SKYPAC and for Bowling Green," said Jeffrey A. Reed, President & CEO of SKYPAC. "It's a reflection of our community's passion for live entertainment and the incredible work of our staff, volunteers, sponsors, and patrons who make every event possible. We're proud to see Southern Kentucky represented on a global stage."

This recognition covers events presented between August 26 and September 22, which included performances by Rick Springfield, The Avett Brothers, Crowder, and Sawyer Brown, showcasing the diversity of programming at SKYPAC.

"This is such a compliment for our area," said Talent Buyer Jennie Chapman of SKYPAC. "The Arts are important for so many, especially in times of obstacles and chaos. We hope to continue to successfully bring people together."

SKYPAC is grateful for the continued support of its patrons and community and looks forward to welcoming guests to upcoming events. Tickets for all SKYPAC performances are available at www.theskypac.com, by phone at (270) 904-1880, or in person at 601 College Street in Bowling Green, KY.
